

Overview of WWF Secondary School Education Programmes and Related School Curriculum

			Related modules / topics in relevant curriculum
			For S.1 to S.3					For S.4 to S.6
			Science			Geography		Geography			Biology		Citizenship and Social Development
Study level	Topic	Venue	Introducing Science	Looking at Living Things	Living Things and Air	From Atoms to Materials	People and the Environment	Future and actions	Coastal Environments	Climate Change	Building a Sustainable City	Organisms and Environment	Applied Ecology	Sustainable Development
S.1 to S.3	Tai Po Heritage Journey	Island House Conservation Studies Centre					✓	✓
S.1 to S.6	Wetland Encounter	Mai Po Nature Reserve		✓	✓			✓				✓	✓	✓
	Wetland Guardian in Action			✓			✓					✓	✓	✓
	Oceanographer	Hoi Ha Wan Marine Park	✓	✓	✓		✓	✓	✓	✓		✓	✓	✓
	Marine Litter Crisis	Island House Conservation Studies Centre		✓		✓			✓		✓	✓	✓	✓
S.4 to S.6	Mangrove Ecology	Mai Po Nature Reserve								✓		✓	✓	✓
	Smart Wetland Exploration										✓	✓	✓
	Metropolis Planner @ Deep Bay									✓		✓	✓
	Coastal Ecologist	Hoi Ha Wan Marine Park									✓	✓	✓
	Sustainable Urban Exploration	Island House Conservation Studies Centre									✓		✓	✓

Remarks: “✓” Programme linkage to the curriculum

All Secondary School Education Programmes support schools in implementing values education, project learning and life-wide learning activities. Some topics can be conducted as group-/grade-based activity to complement other learning experiences (OLE).

Mai Po Nature Reserve – Secondary Education Programmes

Located in the northwest corner of Hong Kong, the Reserve lies at the heart of Hong Kong’s only internationally designated wetland. Come and learn at Mai Po Nature Reserve to explore more about our wetlands.

Secondary Programmes	Outdoor Activities	Learning Objectives
WWF has developed FIVE PROGRAMME OPTIONS of outdoor learning experience for teachers to select according to their teaching needs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wetland Encounter • Wetland Guardian in Action • Mangrove Ecology • Smart Wetland Exploration • Metropolis Planner @ Deep Bay 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bird watching • Experience field works • Conduct ecological surveys • Investigate local wildlife species • Explore wetland monitoring and management with the assistance of traditional and smart technologies • Discuss the importance of land use planning in Hong Kong from the views of different stakeholders 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the concept and importance of proactive and integrated wetland conservation • Learn about field study techniques • Investigate the environmental adaptations of wildlife • Experience service learning and enhance personal, social and civic responsibility • Recognize the application of innovative technology in wetland management • Understand the importance of land use planning

*The fees of the above programmes are paid by the Education Bureau

Online Booking and Enquires		Book Online: https://www.wwf.org.hk/en/education/schools/secondaryprog/ Telephone: 2526-1011 (Choose 2 for English, then press 5) Email: schoolvisit@wwf.org.hk
------------------------------------	---	---

Hoi Ha Wan – Secondary Education Programmes

Come and visit our Asia’s first “classroom on the sea” in Hoi Ha Wan to discover our precious marine resources through personal participation and experience.

Secondary Programmes	Outdoor Activities	Learning Objectives
WWF has developed TWO PROGRAMME OPTIONS of outdoor learning experience for teachers to select according to their teaching needs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Oceanographer • Coastal Ecologist 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Glass-bottomed boat coral observation trip • Study the features of seawater • Onsite study at rocky shore, sandy shore and mangroves 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Encourage students to appreciate the natural beauty of marine environment • Understand the relationships between the marine environment and wildlife • Cultivate ocean literacy, adopt the wise use of marine resources and practise a sustainable lifestyle • Learn about field study techniques

Online Booking and Enquires		Book Online: https://www.wwf.org.hk/en/education/schools/secondaryprog/ Telephone: 2526-1011 (Choose 2 for English, then press 5) Email: schoolvisit@wwf.org.hk
---	---	---

Island House – Secondary Education Programmes

When you visit the Island House Conservation Studies Centre, Tai Po, you will be able to learn more about biodiversity and how to practise a sustainable lifestyle.

Secondary Programmes	Outdoor Activities	Learning Objectives
WWF has developed THREE PROGRAMME OPTIONS of outdoor learning experience for teachers to select according to their teaching needs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tai Po Heritage Journey • Marine Litter Crisis • Sustainable Urban Exploration 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enquiry-based fieldwork • Interviews and data collection • Group discussion on building a sustainable city • Marine litter survey 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the conflict between environmental conservation and urban development • Investigate the importance of building a sustainable city • Practise the methods and skills to analyze data • Discover the impact of marine litter issue

Online Booking and Enquires

Book Online:
<https://www.wwf.org.hk/en/education/schools/secondaryprog/>

Telephone: 2526-1011 (Choose 2 for English, then press 5)
 Email: schoolvisit@wwf.org.hk